Edward Rosewater for U. S. Senator "FREE FROM CORPORATION STRINGS"

Vote at the Primaries Next Tuesday for the 83 Rosewater Delegates, and No Edward Rosewater for Senator More, By Putting Your Cross Opposite Each Name Crossed on the List.

WHAT LEADING PAPERS THROUGHOUT NEBRASKA SAY ABOUT HIS CANDIDACY:

Table Rock Argus (rep.). Rosewater is a man of brains and energy, and as a United States senator courage to stay with his own convictions.

> For the Square Deal. Fairfield Nows-Herald (rep.).

If Omaha expects to be in the senatorial race Reservator is the man Blunglas county will have to unlist but, as he appears the the square deal. But Judging from the past it is too much to expect that Omaha will unite on anybody.

> The Anonymous Muckraker. Lincoln Star (rep.).

not yet ended." Then follows a list of re- forum. publican candidates who, it is alleged, Mr. Rosewater has tried to defeat, "He has fought every local tracet ever nominsted by the republicans of Omaha and Daugias county except when the nominations were dictated by him." It would make little difference what such a card along the lines advocated by President open fight and this attack bears no sig-

Deserves the Honor. Areadia Champion (rep.)

It is a well known fact that Mr. Rosewater is the kind of a man who, when he enters a fight of this kind, is in the fight reles who will be quick to take up the fight, for he has always been a man who took a to do is to select a Rosewater delegation. stand on every public question and of course was obliged to antagonise men and ssures. But we believe, and hope, Mr. Rosewater will win in this fight. He has intrewarded service and an unswayable de- for consistency in advocating those princi-

Ablest in the State.

Binomfield Monitor (rep.). for the position of United States senator after looking the field over we are unable from Nebraska, perhaps the most notable one is that of Edward Rosewater, the vetwater is a republican and has steadfastly and continuously for more than a third of a century labored for the betterment of party conditions. He is a man whose splendid ability ranks second to none in the state and withal is in splendid harmeny with the splendid national administration. The Monitor is pleased that his sen. Victor Rosewater, formally announces lieving, as we do, that he is the best man for the place. This paper has no clods to throw at other aspiring candidates, but if Senator Millard is not to be re-elected then let us unite on the ablest man in the Best Type of Public Man.

Stuart Ledger (rep.). Edward Rosewater has announced himf a candidate for the United States sen-The man who has made and unmade strength of mind and character. He never good democrat would better fill an office for that man, regardless of misrepresentaof public man in the west. Original, fearalways placing men above measures, always courageous enough to fight for his sunvictions of right and wrong. He is Netional reput, and will bring to the senate experience ability and distinction. His wide knowledge of public affairs and his Receivelt courage are particularly needed

Sovereign Visitor (W. O. W.). Edward Rosewater, as republican candimake, appears to be in the lead. Mr. Resewater is a self-made man. He was a telegraph operator during the war; he carne to Omaha immediately after peace was assured. He started an amateur newsppaer, which he gave the stinging name of Omaha , Bee. Its anap and crispiness the city journals which attracted further attention. It rapidly gained popular favor one of the most influential factors in republican politics of any paper in the Mr. Rosewater has made and debility is unquestioned, his independence been manifest. If elected, Nebruska will have an able representative. As an ambitious, public-spirited, sealous for the rights of the people, and he deserves their confidence. Visitor does not care to dab-It has a cosmopolitan membership of all shades of religious and political affilia-

Falls City Journal (rep.). So far as ability is concerned. Mr. Rosewater is head and shoulders above any could be of valuable use to Nebraska. He one who has been mentioned up-to-date. has stood for the leading tenets of the republican party for many years and would the place. The past twenty years of pobe preferable to be represented by men like Rosewater than by some weaking.

> No Strings on Him. Lynch Journal (rep.).

To our mind Mr. Rosewater is the strongest candidate yet announced for that office only that there who has at this time res His position is well known on all questions specialtic support in the states of Mr. of the day and we believe he is better Rosewater's ability litere is he shadew of understood and held in greater respect Soubti there is probably not a man in Ner by the people of this state today than ever aska who has he much information on before. If he is chosen he will be the sens-The Bee: He has made a manly fight for from the northwest, why not Rosewater?

Leading Exponent of Principles

Ashland Gazette (rep.). Edward Rosewater of The Omaha Bee will torship before the coming legislature. Mr. Sweet politics is not often practiced in Rosewater has been for many years the the town where "sweet" packing houses leading exponent of those principles which are the rule. Somebody in Omaha, with a now seem dominant in the party. Unless knife out for Rosewater, is mailing a lot | these principles secure such a readjustment | unsigned eards with an introduction of political forces as to bring the populist which reads: "Read the damning proof. democracy into the saddle it would only be Preserve this card, it may be useful. A a fitting tribute to Mr. Rosewater to make record of political perfidy begun in 1837 and him their exponent in the nation's highest

> Both Brains and Ability. Stanton Pickett (rep.).

Mr. Rosewater is sure to be a formidable candidate. His every idea and act for more than a quarter of a century has been True or untrue, the public likes an Roosevelt. With him reform and a government of the people, for the people and by the people is no new expression, nor is it of a spasmodic order. Besides, he has the reputation as a man of brains and ability that extend beyond our own country. We have not agreed with all his acts, but if there is to be a change we believe that Mr. Rosewater would be a good selection. firmh, and then some. He has ene- If the Douglas county delegation decides to drop Senator Millard, the thing for them

> Represents Popular Reforms. Wahoo Wasp (rep.).

It appears to the Wasp that there would ples for which the people are contending at the present functure there can be no bestowed. This paper has no preferred to discover a man that so nearly represents the various reforms for which the domiwater, editor of The Omaha Bee. It can depended on to do those things that he advocates, and if the state desires that kind

Red Cloud Argus (rep.).

Edward Rosewater has announced himself as a candidate for the United States senate in place of Senator Millard. We know of no public man at present who, by industry and energy in an honorable profession, by steady and unflinching chamthe corporations, by the possession of ability of a high order and unquestioned inde pendance of character, is more fitted for this position than Mr. Rosewater. He is among the last of those who built up great tengressmen for more than thirty years newspapers by their own personal worth is asking the voters of the state to sect him and the advocacy of this own opinions. to one of the highest official positions in Henry Watterson of the Louisville Courier merics. In Rosewater the people have al- is the only other name which now occurs ways found a stalwart defender. He is a to us as that of a great editor of a great stayor, a fighter and a man of unquestioned journal whose personal views have always the news in Monday's Omaha Bee that its characterised the editorials of the paper of distinguished editor would be a candidate what he lifted it. If he made up his mind last representatives of what has been called States senator. When we say people were personal journalism, the two last members pleased we mean the rank and file of the than a tad man of his own party he worked of the school of which Greeley, Dans, Ray- party-the men who have at heart the welspicuous examples. We should like to see each of them in the senate of the United

A Great Nebraska Editor.

Walt Mason's Monthly (Beatrice). This publication is not in politics and has o ambition in that direction, but, in an the distinguished Omaha editor, who appears to liave so many enemies.

We believe he would be a most valuable representative of Nebraska if sent to the inited States senate; he would carry us brated senators who could not be suppressed when they had something worth saying. If there is a man in the senate of keener or more vigorous intellect than Mr. Rosewater his name has been mislaid. His loyalty to Nebruska has been admitted. even by his enemies, and his loyalty does not exhaust itself in words. He has inmade large personal sacrifices for Nebraska; he has preached the beauties and resources of Nebraska for a lifetime. Why, then, should not Nebraska reward him? Because a string of chronic politicians and small bore editors go into convulsions at the mention of his name? Mr. Rosewater is a man of dauntiess courage, of stern integrity, of almost superpathies are with the people in every crisis involving their welfare, and that sympathy is not maudiin, but practical. He is a man Nebreeks like a gentleman. We fall to see any good reason why he should not ecides to have a republican senator, we aspire to any office he desires and we honknow of none heiter qualified or more de- eatly believe that he would be an orna-

North Loup Loyalist (rep.). Edward Rosewater, editor of The Bea through his son, has announced his candidacy for the United States senate. If Mr. litical warfare by him would seem to make state convention, we'll bet our old hat he'll be the tool of no corporation, for he has the his election impossible, although it would get it. The little fighter usually gets what > Whole State Approves. Hastings Tribune (rep.).

Edward Rosewater's candidacy for a seat in the upper house of the United States congress is meeting with the very best of encouragement. In Omaha the Rosewater sentiment is unusually strong and it is the consensus of opinion that Edward Rosewater is in every sense well fitted to fill ing, substantial citizens, who, regardless terning bur people as has the editor of voice or vote. If the senator cannot come feeling is much in svidence throughout the entire state.

> Should Be Elected. Utica News (rep.);

Edward Rosewater has been brought out as a candidate for United States senator. The publisher of this paper is glad to hear make a good representative to have at the national capital, he having the same views that the president has and would work in harmony with him. He should be elected not only for his worth, but for what he has done for this state and for the republican party. He would make a good senator and the people of the state would know that they were represented if he were sent Fearless Defender of the People. Verdigre Citizen (rep.).

The writer has known Mr. Resewater ever since he established The Bee and in all has been so poorly represented in the upper see that Rosewater is sent to the United States senate for the next six years at least, The Citizen is in favor of Edward Rose water for United States senator in preference to any other man in Nebraska.

A Roosevelt Republican.

Edward Rosewater, editor of The Omaha herne the brunt of battle after battle fought be no better way for Omaha and Douglas Bee, is a candidate for United States senain the arena of Nebraska politics, and his county to secure the United States sen- tor from Nebraska, and the News hopes legrity comes out of it all unscathed. He torship than to unite enthusiastically in he will be successful. Ever since the writer has lifted his voice in and out of season in support of Hon. Edward Rosewater, who has known anything Edward Rosewater has United States senate in earnest and prohe has been brutally assaulted time and of enemies to contend against. Any strenuquestion on whom that honor should be again; for the same reason he has known ous life that has accomplished things meets what it is to be sentenced to fall; he has more or less antagonism, and that is the Of all the candidates thus far mentioned candidate for United States senator, but made an enemy of every ring politician in case with Mr. Rosewater. That he has al-Nebraska; his personal motives and char- ways fought to regulate corporations and acter have been traduced and maligned, but through it all they never could or can would ably and fearlessly represent the eran editor of The Omaha Bee. Mr. Rose- nant element of the republican party is read him out of his party or stop his sup- state at Washington, people well know. now contending than Hon. Edward Rose- port of good government or championship, Whether he can secure the nomination or single republican in Nebraska who is so a fight that will make Norris Brown's boom worthy of recognition by his party. He is less certain of carrying the state by storm. brainy and a man who does things. He is of a man to represent it in the senate the a Roosevelt republican, who knows what Nebraska needs, and if the republicans are wise they will make him a United States senator; and if so, Nebraska will have a representative in the senate who can and will accomplish something. He cannot get up and make a rip-roaring, loud-mouthed speech, but no man in the United States today can put him down or out when it comes to facts and figures. He is a business man, a Nebraska man, all the time Omaha Bee, who is now in sucient Rome plouship of the cause of the people against and one who has risked his very life in attending the International Postal congress. exposing fraud and corruption, and the republican party of Nebraska is not giving him so much as a pleasant smile for his labors when they offer him the nomination for United States senator.

Gives Genuine Satisfaction.

It was with genuine satisfaction that the people of this part of the state received for the republican nomination for United mond and the older Bennett were the con- fare of this state and the republican party. There never was just such a time as this. The nation is enjoying unparalleled prosmen seriously discuss in every hamlet. The question is, shall the government control the corporations or shall the corporations control the government? That struggle is effort to be fair, we say a few words about at the front in the contest for the government to control the corporation is Theodore Roosevelt. It is a great contest for supremacy and the people know that the corporations will exert every influence at their command to check remedial legislation or make ineffective what they cannot theck. The republicans of Nebraska can the president is making for the people by the kind of a man they endorse for the senate at the state convention in August, there is throughout the state a growing sentiment that Edward Rosewater be chosen for this place. This sentiment who can be depended upon in any emergency. The people know where he stands on every public question and they have comes up in behalf of the people. Not only this, but his knowledge of the needs of the people he would represent is broader the republican state convention it will be

In the opinion of the Times, if the belief gets fastened upon the republicans of Ne-Mr. Rosewater can have in the legislature jeb, and the nomination is made at the a delegation from Douglas county which tive mighty active especially for his will do battle for him, nothing can stay the tice which will carry him forward to the position which he seeks and which he has earned over and over again.

Candidacy a Call to Duty.

Lyons Sun (rep.). The formal announcement of Edward senator will meet the approval and supadmirers in the state, but also of the thinkmmediate usefulness and service in the senate. His candidacy seems a call to duty and in the best interests of the entire state

Not an Unknown Quantity.

Osmond Republican. Elsewhere in this issue we reproduca delegation to the state convention that Edward Rosewater? will aid Mr. Rosewater in his candidacy.

No Milk and Water Variety.

Gering Courier (rep.). It is appounced that Edward Rosewater is a candidate for the United States senate. these years we have never known him to be and, while the western section of the state of the people to give a prospect of success tional control and limitation of corporafactor, not in the least of the milk and Mr. Rosewater with a seat in the senate.

Has Accomplished Things.

Wayne Herald (rep.). Omaha Bee, is now in the race for the restrict the power of wealth, and that he of the common people. There is not a not time will tell. He will at least put up > Views Approved by the People. Franklin Free Press (rep.).

All the newspapers of the state were not captured by the brass band tactics of the General Norris Brown for United States senator, and many of the independent thinkers among the balance of the republican editors are commenting favorably upon A few years ago Rosewater was put down as a traitor to his party because he would not support the entire republican ticket. but he has outlived that and today is one of the brainest, most thoroughly indapendent and experienced of all the cardidates so far mentioned and his views on the leading lasues of the day are well

> He Blazed the Way. Burchard Times (rep.).

Edward Rosewater is now actively in the race for the United States senatorship to succeed Senstor Millard. This decision on the part of Mr. Rosewater's friends has had the effect of temporarily complicating matters, for many of the newspapers throughplimentary things about Attorney General Brown, feel that they cannot consistently desert his cause now and give support to

And yet, the Times believes that Edward Rosewater is entitled, not only to the enthusiastic support of the republican press speed" of those of opposite political faith. Those of us who have spent years in the editorial harness and have directed the know that sound judgment without "backbone" will not keep a newspaper out of the journalistic boneyard for any great length public approval and stands the test of time is the one that stands for the right at all times, even though by loyalty to that cause the publisher sees his best friends drift away from him and sacrifices his personal Interests.

sink his individuality in the success of his newspaper he has mistaken his calling and will never score a success in the field of journalism.

water in times past, we may have even Mr. Rosewater secures the endorsement of in every town and hamlet in the United states, and we know that he has "blazed state. With a record of twenty-five years of fighting for the people's interest, and message to the Aldrich crowd as to where no mistake in sending Mr. Rosewater to believes in giving the old man a square candidate. Let it be Senator Rosewater of Blue Springs Sentinel (rep.). The active candidacy of Edward Rosewater for United States senator will make one thing about Mr. Rosewater, he is acsented with him in the senate, Represents the Common People. Carleton Leader (rep.).

Edward Rosewater of The Bee has announced himself as a candidate for the United States senate. While it is generally Rosewater's candidacy for United States admitted throughout the state that Rosewater would make a No. 1 senator, we port, not only of his personal friends and doubt very much whether his candidacy as many different practical questions cone tor and no one will pull strings on his and to the state of Nebraska. The same qualifications so necessary at this time for years. But if it should be Rosewater the common people will have a representative.

Well Qualified for It.

Trenton Republican-Leader (rep.). There is no question but that Mr. Rosewater is the intellectual peer of any man the announcement of Edward Rosewater honors, and it is in accord with the eternal of Omaha for United States senator. This fitness of things that there should be but move on the part of the ploneer reformer a step from the editorial desk to the senate is the best thing that has happened to Ne- chamber. The molder of public opinion is brasks politics for years. Rosewater is certainly well qualified to make laws, which not an unknown quantity, and if we can are, after all, only the condensed expreselect him senator the state will have a sion of the opinions and will of the people. representative that will stand well at the If the senatorial toga is to be worn by an head of prominent and able men of the Omaha man, by whom could the weight of nation. We trust Pierce county will send its folds be more gracefully borne than by Fitting Tribute to Party Service.

O'Neill Frontier (rep.). The Frontier has repeatedly stated its belief that Editor Rosewater was the bestequipped, all-around man in the state to anything but a fearless and consistent de- is somewhat committed to the candidacy of date of the republican party. The position fender of the people of Nebraska. The state Norris Brown, it is likewise sure that if any the party takes, its endorsement of the one has a firm enough hold upon the hearts national administration and demand for nathe people, and not the corporations, should it is the veteran editor of The Bee. If he tions, it cannot consistently nominate any were not abroad at this time we fancy his other than a candidate of the Rosewater candidacy would cut a still greater figure. stripe. And, inasmuch as he is admittedly even in this part of Nebraska, for he is the ablest man in the bunch of aspirants, stronger in the state at large than in it would be a fitting tribute for long years Omaha. As a senator he would be a potent of service to the party and state to honor

> With Roosevelt on Big Questions. Belden Progress (rep.).

Edward Rosewater of The Omaha Bee has come out as a candidate for United States senator. The Progress believes he would be has lifted his voice in and out of season in behalf of the great masses and they know is announced as a candidate for that positive have a friend in him. He deserves the thom by his son, Mr. Victor Rosewater. If the corporations and trusts and standing place. Mr. Rosewater's active career as has spent most of his life fighting the corporations.

> The Man for the Emergency. Plainview Republican (rep.).

turned toward the United States senate. That body acts as if charmed by railroad and corporate magnates. The rate bill as it passed the house cannot go through the senate without an amendment in the form of a compromise. A great political upheaval is going on all over the country The voice of the people is heard demanding senators free from corporate influences. Such a demand is fortunate for Rosewater. the candidacy of Editor Rosewater of The That valiant old fighter is certainly the man for the emergency. His record along those lines is all that is required to make him popular. He is in full sympathy with the present administration and were he be striking telling blows for the rate bill. Rosewater has suemies, it is true, but whom they appear it will be hard to convince the public that they are not laboring for the corporations. Being a candidate is a question whether the republican party dare turn down such a man at this time. It cannot afford to do it. There is a demand for such a man-as he is in the will rally about him as their foremost champion of their rights. For the good of the party we would like to see all the other ambitious candidates clear the exists swallow it for the future welfare of their party.

No Stones to Throw.

Genoa Times (rep.). Edward Rosewater's candidacy United States senator is entitled to re-spectful consideration of the republican Bee was the advance agent among the whole state. newspapers of Nebraska for reforms now demanded by republican voters and the republican press and the attempt to class Edward Rosewater with the railway poli-The Bee from the date it was first published down to the present time. The announcement that Edward Rosewater, statement which Rosewater's entrance into editor of The Omaha Bee, is a candidate the senatorial race has brought forth, His is a name to conjure by in Nebraska that he was the candidate of the rallways for he is a worthy representative of the for senator six years ago is only an echo people and not a mere stock jobber for of the charge made by the fusion prass the corporations. A self-made man, he has at the time, which some republican papers. made the most of his opportunities, broadopposed to The Bee editor, are now using ened the minds of thousands through the against him. It was the railway poli- medium of The Bee, done yoeman service ticians who defeated Rosewater in the for the republican party and has a rare ontest six years ago and sent Millard and spirit of high minded civic pride that pre-Dietrich to the senate. The fact that Rose- eminently equips him for the United States water has in some instances refused to senate. Such a man, unassallable in Lis support unscrupulous candidates nomi- opinions of right, has incurred the bitter nated by his party, does not make him a enmity of political opponents, but like the populist. His refusal to put the stamp of rock of Gibraltar he stands impregnable. endorsement upon objectionable men is a typical American and the peer of those more to Rosewater's credit than to his dis- named for the United States senatorship credit. He has never been a yellow dog His work for the good of the republican this reason is cordially hated by the yel- borious, but ever in the front rank fightthe way" for nearly every reform that is log dog politicians, the fellows who place ing for the best principles that obtain. He now being demanded by the people of this greed above principle and trickery and dis- deserves a substantial reward at the hands henesty above loyalty to a public trust. of the people, and this should be the sen-While Norris Brown is the writer's first stership. His intimate knowledge of public Here is an opportunity to choose a sen-ator whose election would be no uncertain keeping, the people of Nebraska could make stones to throw at Edward Rosewater. It and broad mindedness makes him the ideal Edward Rosewater will have a hard fight to land himself in the United States senate, brasks in time for it to take effect, that some of the other fellows hustle. There is Mr. Rosewater has edited a paper in Nebrasks so long that he knows the tricks of the corporations and if elected would be in a position to checkmate some of their moves in the plundering of the public. Therefore, he will have the battle of his life this fall. In the coming contest it will be brains vs. boodle and in fights of this kind brains sometimes win.

Emerson Enterprise (rep.). Mr. Rosewater is one of the best known and best informed men in Nebraska and will be taken seriously. At this time the all admit that he is well qualified for the chances are very much against an Omaha high position of United States senator. that high office with due credit to himself of past differences, recognize in him the man capturing that office for the next six He has many friends throughout the state who would like to see him elected and some enemies who would work persistently to defeat him. It appears now that his election depends largely upon Omaha. If he gets the united support of the metropolis his chance are good.

Voluntary Offer of Support.

Mullen Tribune (rep.). Norris Brown is prominently before the people for the senatorship, all right, but we want it understood that the Tribune did not contribute one line toward putting him there. Although our office has been flooded with "stuff" ground out at "party headquarters" in Lincoln saying many nice things about Mr. Brown we refrained from biting. There is no honor in that sort of politics and for that reason, after careful consideration, the Tribune hereby tenders its warm support to Edward Rose-

Corporations Would Not Run Rim. Red Cloud Advertiser (rep.).

Edward Rosewater is surely elected inited States senator, if the republican newspaper talk is able to do so. This paper would rather see him senator than any other man in the state. It is time that we get a few honest men in that body, and thus let out a lot of coal barons, railroad magnates and bloated bondholders, who have disgraced the country by their highhanded and rotten efforts to befriend the money kings to the exclusion of the people. There is one thing certain, corporations could not run Rosewater for a minute This paper is not democratic, but we would like to see a change.

Fitting Recognition of Services. West Point Republican (rep.).

The Republican is unable to see serious objection to his candidacy, unless it be on the score of age. But, though he has reached the allotted age, he is today at the very senith of his mental powers and has ever known. For his aggressiveness time or another, and he will have a string be done than any man in the party. He is years of active, useful citizenship are still position to know what should or should not his friends assert with confidence that with Roosevelt on all questions of im- before him. Edward Rosewater, throughout the many years of his journalistic acthe right. If he is nominated he will make tivity, dealt many telling blows in behalf is in his power to suppress it. The dele- ples, and, should the senatorial toga be gates to the state convention would act placed upon him by the party at the close of his useful and honorable career, it would be but a just and fitting recognition of his Position on Corporations Established. Fairmount Chronicle (rep.).

E. Rosewater has been prominent in Ne brasks politics for over thirty years, and in that time has made many enemies and done numerous things for which he is corwhom he differed are frank to admit that in ability, experience, fearlessness and energy he ranks first in the land, and as hold a prominent position among the leaders of the nation's capital. corporation principles are well established and we predict that Rosewater will cut much ice in settlement of the senatoria contest in Nebraska.

Persistently Against Corruption. Valentine Republican (rep.).

The Republican has stated before that personally there is no other man whom it senator from Nebraska than E. Rosewater The main reasons for this opinion are plainly set forth in the announcement Years ago he would have been elected United States senator had he not made political and corporate enemies by a continued and persistent effort upon corrup tion and domination of corporation rule. sistent champion of the people in fighting their battles, and many times expending much money, as well as time and energy without even taking a thought of reimowes much to the influence exerted by E. Rosewater and now will have another opportunity to do him henor in recognition of his efforts to advance the welfare of the

Like a Rock of Gibraltar. Sutherland Free Lance (rep.). mentioned for the senatorial toga now worn by Senator Millard, there comes the INSTRUCTIONS Take this sample allot into the booth with you. The offi-INSTRUCTIONS—Take this sample ballot into the booth with you. The official ballot will contain 228 names, alphabetically arranged, always in the same order, but "rotated" so that your ballot may begin with any one of them. For example, if your ballot has "McCague" at the top, find that name on this sample and mark the crosses as you go down the names to "Zimman," then turn back to the top and down till you rener "McCague" again. Count your cross marks to be sure you have just 83 and no more. If you make a mistake, ask for a new ballot. If in doubt about anything, ask the election judge to help you. Take all the time needed to mark your ballot properly,

W. B. ADAIR.

F. ARRELUND.....

W. S. BAILEY
E. A. BAIRD
E. A. BAIRD
E. A. BAIRD
E. W. BANDWAUEE
E. W. BANDWAUEE
E. W. BANDWAUEE
E. IRVING G. BARGHT
GEORGE H. BARKER
F. J. BARR
EERMAN BEAL O BEATTY E RENEDICT
JOHN B. BERGER
P. W. BIRKHAUSER
C. E. ELACK
EDWARD BLACK
Z T. W. BLACKBURN. FRITZ BLOEMER... E. BOCE.... E BOCE

J J BOUCHER

FRANK BOYD

EDWARD L BRADLET

E F BRAILET

E F BRAND PRED BRUNING...... MARRY S. SYMMB.....X D. CUNNINGHAM......E.
W. O. CUNNINGHAM.....E.
VICTOR DAHLSTROM...... JOHN T. DILLON X
CHARLES E DJUREEN. X F MAYNE
L H MERCHANT
WILLIAM NILLER
ROME BULLER
BEET D. MINIST. NTON F. NOVAK.....X E PETERSON..... HUNBY ROTHHOLE P. D. WEAD X JOHN C. WHARTON .....

ONLY DOUGLAS COUNTY CANDIDATE WITH ASSURED SUPPORT FROM OTHER COUNTIES